 Lemesos, Limassol

Restored 1930s Traditional Home – Off Glasdonos Street Limassol

Built in the 1930s and recently fully renovated, this home keeps the character of traditional Cypriot architecture while offering the comfort of a modern home.

The original features have been carefully kept: thick local stone walls and high ceilings. Behind the period charm, the house has been fully upgraded with new electrical and plumbing systems, insulation, double-glazed windows, inverter air conditioning and a solar water system.

The house offers 3 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a separate office area, a bright modern kitchen and a private courtyard, ideal for outdoor dining under the Cyprus sun.
